2.2 Quality Assurance

1. The Association shall aim to avoid repeating errors by maintaining institutional memory.
2. Each Council member shall maintain an Operations Manual of their job and activities in office; detailing: The reasoning behind each duty, how these duties are executed – but only insofar as practices that are sustainable and repeatable, as well as Potential pitfalls of each duty and how to avoid them.
3. A report shall be prepared and submitted to the Internal Affairs Commissioner for each event or service, detailing: What was done, successes, failures, and suggestions for improvement.

4. A survey shall be distributed to all members of the Association at the end of the year, with the intention of gathering feedback regarding the year's operations. The results shall be reviewed by the incoming executive members and taken into consideration for the operations of the next year.

2.3 Progress Reviews

1. The Executive shall conduct mandatory written or oral reviews of the Commissioners. Each review shall clearly outline points of improvement, as well as points of achievement.
2. Each review shall be conducted no later than the end of the Fall Term.
3. The Executive shall be required to deliver a written progress review report to the reviewed Commissioner if requested by the member.
4. Each reviewed member shall be required to meet with the Executive for an in-person progress review if requested by the Executive.
5. The Internal Affairs Commissioner shall collect, compile and anonymize reviews for the Executive from Commissioners into a single written report, to be delivered no later than the end of the Fall Term.

2.4 Volunteer Appreciation

1. In an effort to show appreciation to the members of the Association who have volunteered their time to fill positions within the Association, an effort shall be made to provide goods and services whenever possible.
2. As part of the budgeting process, the President and the Finance Commissioner shall decide on an appropriate amount to devote to Volunteer Appreciation. This budget shall be allocated based on the discretion of the President to provide for items such as refreshments for Council Meetings, or social gatherings aimed at group cohesion.
3. Additionally, tickets to the Association's End of the Year Banquet shall be allocated as follows: The President shall receive two tickets, each Vice President shall receive one ticket, and the remainder of Council shall receive a discounted price, determined prior to the event.

2.5 Impeachment of the Executive or Elected Representatives

2.5.1 Special General Assembly

1. A Special General Assembly may be called for the purpose of impeachment.
2. The Motion of Impeachment shall be the only item on the Agenda for this Special General Assembly.
3. A Motion to Impeach an elected member shall require 2/3 approval of the Special General Assembly.

2.5.2 Referendum

1. If the Internal Affairs Commissioner is presented with a petition to hold a referendum, containing the signatures of ten percent (10%) of the Associations membership, they shall arrange for a referendum, posing the question of impeachment of the specified individual.
2. A referendum for impeachment requires a simple majority (50% + 1) to succeed.

2.6 Termination

1. When a just cause has been demonstrated, the Executive may terminate the employment of any hired member of Council or Extended Council.
2. Just cause may include: Failure to fulfill duties outlined in the Operations Policy Manual; Behaviour that does not align with the principles of the Association; Any other justifiable reason, agreed upon by the executive.
3. The decision to terminate must be a unanimous decision by all members of the Executive.
4. Prior to termination, all efforts shall be taken by the executive to correct the issues leading to the consideration of termination.
5. Termination shall be a last resort, and must be substantiated with prior documentation of reasons for termination.

2.7 Vacancy of Office

1. All policies within this section have been made – aware of the many complications that can cause Vacancy; therefore the executive may choose to override these policies, given they have presented a motion to the General Assembly. The General Assembly will then hold a vote on this motion which needs two thirds approval to pass.
2. If the time remaining in the term of office for a particular position is less than 2 months, the position shall not be filled and its duties will be assumed by the remainder of Council – unless there is already an incoming member who is willing to take up their position early.

2.7.1 Executive

1. In the absence or unavailability of any one member of the Executive, or in the event that any one of the three Executive offices becomes vacant, the remaining Executive members may appoint a replacement, who is an Association member, subject to the approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Assembly present and voting at an Assembly where notice of a motion of approval has been duly given. Should the nominee of the remaining Executive members be rejected, the Assembly may make an appointment, or it may require the remaining Executive members to propose alternative nominees.

2. Should the Assembly decide that the exercising of its authority to nominate candidates is undesirable, it shall call a by-election in accordance with Operations Policy Manual Section 5.
3. In the absence or unavailability of any two members of the Executive or in the event that any two, or all three, of the positions become vacant, the Assembly shall choose replacements who shall temporarily assume the powers and duties of those Executive members until such time as an election can be held, in accordance with Operations Policy Manual Section 5.

2.7.2 Elected Representatives

1. In the event that any of the Elected Representative positions become vacant through impeachment or resignation, the duties of that position will be covered by the remaining elected representatives until such a time that a replacement is appointed.
2. The executive may choose to appoint a suitable individual to fill any vacancy in an elected representative position. This appointment must be ratified by a two-thirds approval vote at any General Assembly.

2.7.3 Hired Personnel

1. When a vacancy in a hired position occurs, the original hiring process will be used to fill the position.

3 Association Assemblies

1. All Assemblies held by the Association shall be chaired in accordance with Bourinot's Rules of Order, with only distinctions made in Constitution and Policy superseding these rules.

3.1 General Assemblies

1. All General Assemblies shall be chaired by the COMPSA Speaker, who shall be elected by the processes outlined in Section 4.
2. In the absence of the Speaker, or in the event of a conflict of interest, the Deputy Speaker, also elected by the processes outlined in Section 4, shall chair the General Assembly, or the specific section pertaining to the conflict of interest.
3. Minutes shall be taken by the Internal Affairs Commissioner (or an appointed Scribe), and kept for a minimum period of 10 years.
4. All General Assemblies have a time limit of two hours from the time they are called to order. A Motion to extend by one-half hour (30 minutes) may be made prior to the time limit expiring. A total of 4 extensions may be made, after such a time, the meeting will adjourn and all remaining business will appear on the next Agenda.

5. A General Assembly Agenda shall typically adhere to the following order: Approval of the Agenda; Approval of the Previous Meeting's Minutes; Guest Speakers – if present; Speakers Business; Reports – given in a logical order; Statements By Members; Question Period; Business Arising from the Minutes – if applicable; New Business; Discussion Period
6. Changes to the agenda are allowed to be made by the Speaker during the Approval of the Agenda Section, as well as during the meeting at any time by any member as a seconded motion, as long as the change receives the approval of Assembly.
7. Adjournment of the Assembly does not require a motion, and occurs upon the arrival at the end of the agenda, or if the time limit is reached and there are no successful motions to extend.
8. The Association's General Assembly shall have membership consisting of: The Assembly Speaker (or Deputy Speaker) – who shall not vote except in the event of a tie; The Executive of the Association; The Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners of the Association; The Elected Representatives of the Association; Other Members of the Association hired to conduct the business of COMPSA; Other Members of the Association who hold voting rights as defined in the Constitution; A representative of the Graduate Computing Society – who shall not vote; Any additional non-voting members.

3.2 Council Meetings

1. All Council Meetings shall be chaired by the President.
2. In the absence of the President, or in the event of a conflict of interest, the Vice President University Affairs shall chair the General Assembly, or the portion surrounding the conflict of interest.
3. Minutes shall be taken by the Internal Affairs Commissioner, and kept for a minimum period of 10 years.
4. All Council Meetings have a time limit of two (2) hours from the time they are called to order. A Motion to extend by one-half hour (30 minutes) may be made prior to the time limit expiring. A total of 4 extensions may be made, after such a time, the meeting will adjourn and all remaining business will appear on the next Agenda.

4 Speaker & Deputy Speaker

1. The Speaker shall be elected to serve as a neutral voice of the Association

4.1 Selection of the Speaker & Deputy Speaker

1. Any standard member of the Association (students in the School of Computing who do not actively participate in the affairs of COMPSA) may run to be elected as Speaker

2. The President shall not be allowed to be elected Speaker under any circumstances.
3. The other Members of the Executive, Commissioners, Deputy Commissioners, and Elected Representatives shall not be eligible to run for the Office of COMPSA Speaker during the first attempt at electing a COMPSA Speaker. If the first attempt is unsuccessful, they become eligible to run.
4. If for any reason the Speaker or Deputy Speaker wishes to step down from their position, they must provide notice of resignation to Assembly Members at the Assembly prior to their last General Assembly.
5. In the event that either the Speaker or Deputy Speaker positions become vacant throughout the year, the process for electing them may be repeated at the required time.

4.1.1 Election of the Speaker

1. At the final General Assembly of the academic year, during Speaker's Business, the outgoing speaker will hold an election for the new Speaker.
2. The Speaker will call for nominations for candidates; candidates must be nominated, nominations must be seconded, and seconded nominations must be accepted by the candidate.
3. At the close of nominations, all candidates for the position will be given the opportunity to introduce themselves, and provide reasons for their candidacy.
4. Following opening statements, the Speaker shall facilitate a question period of the candidates.
5. Following a reasonable question period, the Speaker shall allow all candidates a brief closing statement.
6. Candidates will be asked to leave the room while a vote, by show of hands, occurs; a Secret ballot may be requested, but the default is a show of hands.
7. A preferential, instant-runoff, voting method will be used in instances where more than two candidates are running for the position.
8. In the event that there are no successful nominees to the position of Speaker, the above process may be repeated at the first General Assembly of the term, with the Vice President of University Affairs acting as interim Speaker. If there are no successful nominees after this second attempt, the Vice President University Affairs shall become the Speaker for the year.

4.1.2 Election of the Deputy Speaker

1. The COMPSA Deputy Speaker shall be elected using the same process as for the Speaker with some alterations.
2. The first election is held at the first General Assembly of the Academic year – rather than the last of the previous year.
3. Any member of COMPSA may be eligible on the first attempt – except the President who shall never be eligible.

4. If a second attempt at an election is needed, it will take place at the second General Assembly of the Year. 2. The aims of this transition event shall be: The outgoing council members shall relate their experiences on the job to the incoming council members; the incoming council is made intimately familiar with their duties as outlined in this document or any others pertaining to their portfolio.
3. In addition to a purely information event, a social component should be added to the transition event to effectively assist in team building.
4. The final General Assembly of the year shall act as a transition assembly for the association. At this General Assembly, outgoing members shall introduce their successors, and help facilitate the transition.

8 Awards

1. The Association shall maintain and present the The Howard Stavelly Teaching Award; The President's Award; and the Gradum Dominus Machinarum Award

8.1 The Howard Stavely Teaching Award

1. Howard Staveley started working at Queen's University in 1966. He became an adjunct instructor for the department of Computing and Information Science at Queen's University in 1982 and continued teaching until the winter term of 1996. He also held the position of Manager of Information Systems in Computing Services from 1982 until 1996. Howard passed away in 1996 at the age of 52, in the midst of a successful career. He has been sorely missed by his many friends at Queen's. In 1997 an annual award was created in his memory.
2. Howard consistently earned outstanding evaluations from his classes, and established a standard for teaching excellence. Students loved Howard because he was a great instructor who loved teaching. He was not a teacher by profession – he took on the role over and above his full-time job with Queen's Computing and Communication Services (now called Information Technology Services). Howard brought to his classes his own enthusiasm, his respect for the students, and his appreciation for the humanity in the science. Nominees should demonstrate the same love and enthusiasm for teaching, care for students, and outstanding feedback from students as Howard did.
3. Students may submit a signed nomination for a professor via e-mail or another appropriate method.
4. Notification of this award and the ability for students to nominate professors, shall be sent via e-mail at least twice per year, once at the end of the fall term, and once at the end of the winter term, by the Executive.
5. The Association's Council shall review all nominations in a closed session, and determine the final award recipient.
6. This award will be presented annually at the School of Computing Awards Ceremony by the President of the Association (or designate).

8.2 The President's Award

1. One recipient shall be the member of Council who the President feels has most contributed to the betterment of the University experience for COMPSA members through their dedication and initiative.
2. One recipient shall be any member of COMPSA who does not sit on Council and has demonstrated spirit and enthusiasm for everything COMPSA. The President shall collect recommendations for this award via e-mail or another appropriate method at least two weeks before the award is to be presented; the President shall review these recommendations and determine the award recipient.
3. This award shall be presented to two recipients each a year at the End of Year Computing Banquet.

8.3 Gradum Dominus Machinarum Award

1. This award is presented to a graduating member of COMPSA who has, throughout their time at Queen's, contributed to the betterment of the University experience and demonstrated spirit and enthusiasm for everything COMPSA.
2. The Executive shall collect recommendations for this award via e-mail or another appropriate method at least two weeks before the award is to be presented; these recommendations shall be reviewed by the Executive to determine the award recipient.
3. This award shall be presented at the End of Year Computing Banquet.

9 External Affairs
